KILLING A CANARD.

The Financial Result of Horace Greelev's Election as Understood by A. T.

Mr. Alexander T. Stewart has just had a conversation upon politics with a reporter of the Herald. In the course of this conversation, Mr. Stewart expressed views of great weight and cogency upon the financial consequences of Horace Greeley's election. These views are not only sound and judicious in themselves, but are stated with such admirable clearness of language that we give them to our readers exactly as they are reported:

Reporter. Mr. Stewart, you are probably aware of the existence of an impression in the public mind, and which is sought to be strengthened to aid the administration interests in the coming election, that the eleva-tion of Mr. Greeley to the Presidency would lead to results adverse to the financial inter-ests of the mercantile community and of the ests of the mercantile community and of the country generally. I have been directed by the Herald to call upon you, sir, to learn whether it is agreeable to you to make public your views on the subject.

Mr. Stewart. What is it you want to know? Reporter. Well, we want to know whether you look forward to Mr. Greeley's election as likely to produce uneasiness and financial diffi-cuity in the financial world? Mr. Stewart. I do not. Why should it lead

Mr. Stewart. I do not. Why should it lead to difficulty?
Reporter. Well, it is said that Mr. Greeley's peculiar financial views would be the reverse of those entertained by Mr. Boutwell.
Mr. Stewart. Can you tell me what are the views of Mr. Boutwell? I never could learn that he had any special views or policy. I supposed his course was controlled by his judgment of oxisting circumstances. So far as his policy consists in purchasing, at a large prepolicy consists in purchasing, at a large pre-mium, government bonds not yet due, I think the sooner that is terminated the better for the country; and the sooner it is understood the country; and the sooner it is indersoon that the government intends entering upon a policy which, at some future time, no matter how remote, will lead to resumption of specie payments, the better it will be for everybody. Continuing the course that has been pursued the last four years will never lead us to specie payments, but leaves every merchant at the mercy of gold gamblers.

Reporter. Then you have no fear that the election of Mr. Greeley will produce any financial difficulty.

Mr. Blewart. None whatever.

Mr. Stewart. None whatever.
Reporter. What do you think of his present views on the tariff question? Would they not, if carried out by a enange of the tariff, lead to some confusion with the merchants?

Mr. Stewart. Not at all. On the contrary, I think Mr. Greeley leaves that question where it always should be left—with the people, through their members of Congress, uncontrolled by party dictation. I have always contended that the tariff laws, to which our country looks for its revenue, should be dictated wholly by rules of equity and justice. country looks for its revenue, should be dic-tated wholly by rules of equily and justice, and so as to bear equally in their application upon all interest and all classes. Take off the party whip, allow the members of Congress to consult the general interest of their respec-tive constituents in framing the tariff laws, and I believe we would find every interest much better served and protected than it now

Long essays have been written upon financial questions and upon the manner in which Mr. Foutwell has administered his office, and many speeches have been made; but not one of these lengthy writers or speakers has said as much as Mr. Stewart in the few lines above quoted. The judgment of a man of talent and experience, and extraordinary familiarity with political economy and finance, appears in every word.

THE EVENTFUL DAY.

DECISIVE BATTLE IN THREE GREAT STATES TO-MORROW.

Latest Speculations Concerning the Result-Effect of the News from Georgia-1. T. Stewart Declares for Greeley-The Mayoralty Contest - Death of Dr. Leiber-Lucca in Gounod's Tragic Opera.

[FROM OUR OWN CORRESPONDENT.] NEW YORK, October 3. Five days only elapse before the decisive battle in the Central States, and the excitement in political circles is still increasing. There is the greatest anxiety to hear about the progress of the campaign in Pennsylvania, Ohio and Indiana, and the great dailies, appreciating the fact, have their correspondents perambulating those States from one end to the other, and give long columns of their speculations every morning. The represen-Herald unite in bestowing Pennsylvania upon Buckalew by from fifteen thousand to Maher. thirty thousand majority. Editorially the Tribune and World are both confident of Liberal triumphs in the three central States in October and November. The Herald concedes Indiana to the Liberals, and Ohio to the Radicals next week, and contends that Pennsylvania is very doubtful, with the chances slightly in favor of Buckalew. The Times professes to feel tolerably confident of carry-ing the three States for the Radicals, but ing the three States for the Radicals, but harps nervously upon the trauds which the Liberals are going to perpetrate. The sun, which is intensely partisan, and therefore not a very sate guide for betting men under all circumstances, is predicting extraordinary Liberal; majorities. Among the Radical papers outside the State, the Philadelphia Press thinks Buckalew will carry Pennsylvania in October, but that Grant will save it in November Wachberger Star one of the President and the President a ber. The Washington Star, one of the President's home organs, on last Sunday editorially gave up Pennsylvania to the Liberals on next Tuesday.

I may say that the private advices continue to be cheering. I have seen the most posi-tive assurances of victory in letters from Mr. Randall, chairman of the Democratic execu tive committee in Pennsylvania, and from Colonel McClure, chairman of the Liberal Republican committee. Cameron cannot beat Buckalew's majorities outside of Philadelphia. t by heavy election frauds in Philadel-His followers boast that they will make Hariranft's majority in the city more than twenty thousand. The average Radical ma-jority in the city for ten years past has been five thousand. It ought to be less now on account of the hostility of the Forney faction to the Ring candidate for Governor. It will be safe to calculate that all above four thousand majority received by Hartranft in Philadelphia will be due to false counting by the canvassers. I have heard that the $3,000.000 Cameron has obtained to use in the election will not be employed in nurchasing votes. will not be employed in purchasing votes, but in buying up the election carvassers. A part of these are Democrais, and as some of them are poor men, Cameron believes one thousand dollars aplece can capture them for the process. Where the vite is counted by three canvassers, two of whom are named and the other a purchased Democrat, the returns can be made to come out any way Cameron wishes. McClure and Randall, however, eron wishes. McClure are old and experience are old and experienced politicians, and acquainted with all the tricks of their profession, and their experience will doubtless enable them to thwart much of Cameron's plot-

Just at the crisis of the canvass we are great-Just at the crisis of the carries we are greatly helped and inspirited by the news from Georgia. Nobody expected that Georgia would go Radical, but such a heavy Democratic majority as Smith receives was not hoped for. The use we can put it to is this, that we can parade it before the North as proof that the Southern States are almost unanimous for the Liberal movement. To be able to hurrah over anything just now assists us in the canvass in Just made the emphatic declaration that in his opinion the election of Mr. Greeley would cause no financial trouble. He approves of Greeley's policy of relegating the tariff question to the people, and criticises the course of the present secretary of the treasury in purchasing government bonds, not yet due, at a large premium, very severely. Mr. Stewart's views are a staggering blow at the Radical theory that the basiness community distrusts the Liberal candidat. At the great Liberal mass meeting, three weeks ago, the names of as many substantial business men appeared among the vice-presidents as the Radicals have been able to secure for the same purpose.

After several mysterious outgivings by the After several mysterious outgivings by the World, the name of the gentleman who will be the candidate of reconstructed Tammany and the Reform Committee of Seventy for mayor has been at last made public. The anand the Reform Committee of Seventy for mayor has been at last made public. The announcement was made simultaneously, and apparently by concert, by the World, Herald and Tribune. The name is that of William Butler Duncan, the head of the great banking house of Duncan, Sherman & Co. It is understood that Mr. Duncan's consent to be a candidate was only obtained after repeated efforts and great difficulty. He yielded to the persuasions of such friends as Tilden, Schell, Marshall O. Roberts, and one of the Brown Brothers, who urged that it was the duty of our men of wealth and high character to take part in municipal business, even at the sacrifice of other personal interests. The example of such a man as Butler Duncan would induce many of his class to serve in places heretofore usurped by petty politicians and thieves.

Mr. Duncan, supported by the committee of seventy, and the regular Democratic and Liberal organizations, and commanding as he does the confidence of the business men of eral organizations, and commanding as he does the confidence of the business men of does the connence of the outlars men of New York, will prove irresistible. Such a nomination utterly drowns the aspirations of the Jimmy O'Briens, of the slums, and deals a death-blow at the bargainings of the Apollo Hall clique with the Custombouse Ring. The Times, this morning, latimates that it will not support Mr. Duncan. The venerable exmayor, Havemeyer, has been nominated for mayor already by some of the minor local factions. As he wrote a letter a few weeks ago indorsing the venerable General Dix for Gov-ernor, he may be fairly claimed as a converto Radicalism, and perhaps will be taken up by the Customhouse Ring as their candidate against Mr. Duncan.

The deaths of two conspicuous New Yorkers have lately been announced; Rev. Dr. Vinton, of Trinity Church, and Professor Francis Lieber, of Columbia College of this city. The latter is as well known in South Carolina as latter is as well known in South Carolina as here from his twenty-three years' residence in the capital of your State, which extended down to the year 1858. Dr. Lieber, who had been extremely popular in the South, greatly offended its people when, after his removal to the North, he became one of their most virulent and persistent defamers. He had expected analysis but kindness at the hands perienced naught but kindness at the hands of the Southern people, and he was one of the londest to hound on the war which subsequently broke out against them. This course of Dr. Lieber's was unaccountable to his for-mer friends, and remains without satisfactomer friends, and remains without Sausiactorry explanation to this day.

Lucca sang in the role of Gounod's "Marguerita" at the Academy last night, and achieved a more pleasing success than she did on the occasion of her debut in L'Africaine. Her idea of the character is entirely different from the conceptions of Kellogz, Nilsson and the other artists who have preceded her on the American lyric stage. The conventional, and American lyricatage. The conventional, and and I think more popular rendition of the part, is that of a gentle and confiding girl, whose life is a sort of dream-like love reverie. The tenderness which Nilsson gave to the character made it very enchanting. But Lucca's "Marguerita" is a buxom, healthy country lass, who loves with intense ardor, and is roused into a irenzy of passion and despair by the events of the story. This gives scope for Lucca's tragic powers. She sacrifices delicacy to grandeur, pathos to passion. She makes a great part of it, and it should be heard by those who have listened to Kellogg and Nilsson.

A negro mob, some twenty in number, led on by a white man, who : is thought is identified as a certain custonhouse official, waylaid and made a murderos, assault upon Mr. James Julian about elevin o'clock Tuesday night at the Central Dept, near West Broad street, Savannah. Mr. Julan had been walting for the Charleston trih, and was on his way home at the time of he dastardiylattaok. Four shots were fired at him, one taking effect in his head and another in his thigh, and his clothes were burnt and absolutely set on fired by the flashing powder of the discharged pistols, so near to his body were they placed and shot off. Clubs and blicks were freely used on the victim of this outrage, and after being thus wounded and fearthly beaten he was leit bleeding and helpless and nearly dead, while the guilty assasins hurried away. Some of these parties are known, and as soon as Mr. Julian is able to begin their prosecution, warrants will be issued against them. At present he is under medical care, and suffering very much from his severe bruises and the pistol wounds. GEORGIA SENDS GREETING.

THE DEMOCRATIC MAJORITY AP-PROACHING FIFTY THOUSAND.

Carry the News to Hiram-The Glove Thrown Down to the Northern Liberais-Let Them Beat it if They Can.

The grand Democratic majority in Georgia has warmed the hearts of the Liberals throughout the Union, and the Northern newspapers are loud in their praise of the Empire State. The New York Tribune only expected five thousand majority, and says the result is "full of cheer." The New York World says that "what has been done in Georgia will decide the movement of the entire South," and that the Radicals can count on no Southern State save South Carolina and Mississippi. The New York Herald says that Wednesday's work "will solidify the Greeley party throughout the entire South." The New York Times, of course, attributes the Radical defeat to Demo-

State by 26,863. Estimating twenty-eight countles as one fifth; these returns would inlicate a majority of about 65,000 for Smith in the entire State. The official report of ninety-nine countie show a majority for Smith (Democrat) of 40,-013. ARCHBISHOP BAYLEY. His Farewell in Newsrk and Reception in Baltimore.

Legislature is 603.

The Newark Advertiser, of Thursday evening, gives an interesting account of the part-ing meeting on that day of the Roman Catho-lic clergy of the diocese of Newark with their late bishop, J. Roosevelt Bayley, recently aplate bishop, J. Roosevelt Bayley, recently appointed by the Pope Archbishop of Baltimore. The Rev. Dr. Corrigan, representing the clergy of the diocese, made an address reie valuable services of Bishop Bayley to that the valuable services of Bishop Bayley to that diocese, and expressing regret at the necessity existing for his departure. An archiepiscopal cross was presented to the Archiebhop with the inscription, "In Cruce Salus, in Cruce Vita, in Cruce Intusis Sapernæ Suavitatus." Besides the cross, he was also presented with a magnificent gold watch and chain.

The archiebhop in a very feeling manner thanked the clergy for their many acts of kindness, and especially for their bandsome parting testimophals. After the archiebhop had parting testimonials. After the archoisnop had done speaking those present proceeded to the bishop's house, where a very elegant collation was partaken of. Archoisnop Bayley will be installed Sunday, the 13th of October.

TRIBUTE OF RESPECT.

At a regular meeting of the Stonewall Boat Club, held on the 1st of October, 1872, the following preamble and resolutions were unanimously

One by one our comrates, H. Plasphol, and H. Willie, have passed away. When two, full of life and spirit, have suddenly ceased to exist, and, as it were, snatched from us by the unexpected hand of fate, stunned by the unlooked for event, we cannot realize the extent and nature of our loss. And so it is with their death. These were two of the first members of our organization, were present with us always in our meetings, for busines or pleasure was the itie and soul of those meetings, and took an earnest, active, and efficient part in everything which tended to increase our prosperity, or add to the efficiency of our associa tion. Be it therefore

Resolved. That in the death of our deceased members, H. Willie and H. Plasphol, our association has lost two of its most valuable members.

Resolved. That we tender to their parents our marmest sympathy for their irreparable bereavements, and implore the love of God to sustain them in their great loss.

Resolved. That the accretary be instructed te dedicate a page of our minute book to their memory, with words expressive of their virtues and our sorrow for their death.

Resolved. That a copy of these resolutions be sent to their bereaved parents, and that they be published in the Daly Nevrs.

TER-NATTANS'S CRYSTAL DISCOVERY FOR THE HAIR.—A perfectly clear preparation in one bottle, as easily applied as water, for restoring to gray hair its natural color and youthini appearance, to eradicate and prevent dandruff, to promote the growth of the hair and stop its falling out. It is entirely harmless, and perfectly free from any poisonous substance, and will therefore take the place of all the dirty and unpleasant preparations now in use. Numerous testimonia's have been sent us from many of our most prominent citizens, some of which are subjoined. In everything in which the articles now in use are objectionable, ORYSTAL DISCOVERY is perfect. It is warranted to contain neither Sugar of Lead, Sulphur or Nitrate of Silver, it does not soil the clothes or scalp, is agreeably perfumed, and makes one of the best dressings for the Hair ip ase. It restores the color of the Hair "more per fect and uniformly than any other preparation," and always does so in from three to ten days virtually feeding the roots of the Hair with all the nourishing qualities necessary to its growth and healthy condition; it restores the decayed and induces a new growth of the Hair mere posttively than anything else.
